

Noah B. Farber

1701 James Rd, Mendota Heights, Minnesota 55118 | (651) 270-1480 | farbe025@umn.edu

EDUCATION

University of Minnesota, Twin Cities
Curtis L. Carlson School of Management
Bachelor of Science in Business
Major: Management Information Systems
Minor: Jewish Studies
Bentson Scholarship Recipient

Minneapolis, MN
Expected Graduation: May 2019

GPA: 3.33

EXPERIENCE

Slalom LLC
Minneapolis, MN

Organizational position: Salesforce Analyst

August 2019 – Present

- Working as a consultant on diverse teams in order to utilize the Salesforce platform to solve complex business problems and drive value for Slalom's clients

TCF Bank

Plymouth, MN

Organizational Position: IT Risk Intern

May 2018 – August 2018

- Used tools including SQL and Director Archive to find and ultimately streamline the process of collecting Mobile Remote Deposit Capture (MRDC) loss data
- Worked with the team's Scrum Master to prepare for sprint planning and retrospective meetings
- Developed skills in a wide variety of different business segments within TCF by participating in interactive panel sessions hosted by organizational leaders

United Way of Dane County (UWDC)

Madison, WI

Organizational Position: Resource Development Intern

May 2017 – August 2017

- Acquired knowledge in the comprehensive work UWDC does to address the educational, income, and health needs of citizens living in Dane County
- Raised, working as a team, over $10,000 in donations from companies in the Madison Area

Herzl Summer Camp

Webster, WI

Organizational Position: Lead Tennis Instructor

Summers June 2015 - August 2016

- Fostered and maintained an inclusive and engaging environment for campers ages 9-16
- Developed interpersonal and leadership skills by creating a comprehensive tennis curriculum and leading the tennis program

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP ROLES

MIS Case Team

October 2018 – Present

- Selected from a competitive field of candidates to receive intense case team training
- Represented Carlson at the Marshall International Case Competition (MICC) in Los Angeles, CA

Minnesota Hillel

September 2015 – Present

Co-President of GopherIsrael

- Tasked with leading educational events relating to Israeli history and current affairs in the Middle East
- Serves as a representative of Hillel to the outside community at events in the campus community

Independent Original Research Projects

January 2018 – Present

- Researched the day to day lives of Sephardic Jews who lived in Medieval Andalucía
- Created, researched and wrote a paper titled "Reconciling History and Tourism – An Analysis of the Sefarad Zachor Markers of Seville, Spain" while studying abroad in Madrid, Spain
- Project was featured in the 2018 annual magazine of the Center for Jewish Studies

Sigma Alpha Mu Fraternity

Executive Council

January 2017 – January 2018

- Elected to serve as Communications Director, one of the four executive positions in an 80-member chapter
- Engaged in budgeting the Chapter's funds, communicating with ΣAM national, sorting out internal affairs and producing the alumni newsletter

Minnesota Student Association (MSA) Student Senator

September 2015- May 2017

Student Group Representative

- Attended weekly meetings as a member of the diversity and inclusion committee
- Part of a team that successfully advocated for and ultimately passed legislation changing university food policy

Skills and interests

- Conversational in Spanish, avid tennis and ping pong player, enjoys hiking, biking and rock climbing